

OPA Ends All Price Controls On Meat After Truman Order

Washington, Oct. 15 (AP)—Carrying out President Truman's orders, the OPA today officially ended price controls on livestock, meat and food and feed products from them, effective at 12:01 a. m. (E.S.T.) today.

OPA Administrator Paul Porter also announced that "all slaughter controls were revoked so that quota restrictions will no longer apply."

Government subsidy payments to the meat industry also are abolished.

To Retain Some Controls

Porter said the OPA "will announce as soon as practicable the specific list of commodities on which ceilings will be retained. Commodities not on that list thus will be decontrolled," he added.

The brief OPA announcement noted that "price ceilings must be retained on important commodities and services where demand is still in excess of supply."

Examples of things that remain under price lids are "automobiles, farm equipment, household appliances, furniture, basic clothing items and building materials."

The OPA statement said that "the president explained why there was no other possible form of action."

"Only Remedy"

This referred to Mr. Truman's broadcast of last night in which he said decontrol of meat is the "only remedy" for the nationwide shortage.

Listed on OPA's formal decontrol order are:

"Livestock and food and feed products processed or manufactured in whole or substantial part from livestock (domestic and imported)."

The OPA explained that a food or feed product "shall be deemed to be made in substantial part from livestock if it contains 33 1-3 per cent or more by weight or volume of livestock, or of livestock and any one or more of other decontrol commodities. Weight or volume is determined on the basis of the weight or volume of the total ingredients exclusive of water, added as an ingredient in the product before mixture."

The chief executive—to the tune of Democrats' applause and criticism, Republican taunts and industry jubilation—also signalled an earlier end to virtually the whole series of wartime restrictions, except those over rents.

Reverses Stand

Mr. Truman said the removal of ceilings on items other than meat will be speeded up and this will hasten the end of wage controls.

Sharply reversing his previous stand, the President told the nation the "real blame" for his action "lies at the door of the reckless group of selfish men who, in the hope of gaining political advantage have encouraged sellers to gamble on the destruction of price control."

Speaking in a nation-wide broadcast last night, three weeks before the Congressional elections, Mr. Truman said that OPA and the agriculture department would formally scrap the meat price lids today. Their action was all that was required to make the elimination of controls legally effective.

Varied Reaction

However, no great quantity of meat is expected to begin appearing in butcher shops for perhaps 10 days—the time usually required to get livestock from the farms to meat counters.

Mr. Truman's dramatic decision, climaxing a mounting furor over meatless menus, drew immediate Republican cries of "death bed repentance," "confession of failure," and "too late."

In the administration camp the reaction was generally favorable, but Rep. DeLoach (D-Wash.) indicated disapproval by calling for a "national buyers' strike" to hold down prices of meat and other items.

And Rep. Monroney (D-Okla.) termed the President's action a body blow at inflation control.

Paris Conference Ends; Yugoslavia Bolts Parley

By JOSEPH DYNAN

Paris, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Paris Peace Conference ended officially at 5:28 p. m. (11:28 a. m., EST) today after Yugoslavia, in a last minute dramatization of her dissatisfaction with its decisions, formally withdrew from the 21-nation deliberations.

With a rap of his gavel, President-Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France declared the conference closed, after a brief address in which he reviewed the work accomplished by the delegates since they convened July 29 to write treaties with Italy, Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Finland.

Yugoslavia's protest against what she termed "unjust decisions" in the conference majority drew a prompt rebuke from U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes.

"Just as no one nation had the power to win the war," Byrnes said, "so no one nation has the power to dictate the peace."

ROTARIANS SEE CANNING PLANT AT PEACH GLEN

The Appalachian apple belt, stretching from Adams county to Virginia is now recognized as producing the best apple products in the United States, M. E. Knouse, head of the Peach Glen plant of the National Fruit Product Corporation, told members of the Gettysburg Rotary club at the organization's regular meeting Monday night. The club members were the guests of Knouse at the Peach Glen plant.

Since 1930 when the Appalachian canners began a push for quality and the use of the new processes, the section has gone far in the lead as a canning area and now apples processed in other sections sell at from 15 to 20 cents less per dozen than the price paid for apple products produced in this area, Knouse added.

Recalling the start of the canning industry in 1904 he told of when "we had a small hole in the top of the can through which the apple product was pushed and after the can was filled we put on a lid and soldered it fast."

Cites Two Reasons

New York state led in the canning industry and sold its products at a premium until about 1930, he added.

Two reasons were given by Knouse for the leadership of the Appalachian area. The first is the type of fruit grown, the second is the co-operation between growers and canners "which is not equalled anywhere else in the United States." Knouse said, New York state started with Greens and Baldwins then shifted to Macintosh and Wealthies, Mr. Knouse said, while the Appalachian area has a "heavy set of York Imperial which is one of the outstanding canning apples." Others such as Stayman Winesap and Golden Delicious are now coming to the front as excellent canning apples.

The Golden Delicious may in time be just as popular as the York Imperial and "if I had my way would replace the York Imperial," the canner head declared. The Golden, he said is likely to produce better than the Imperial which is an off-bearing variety. It starts early and is highly frost resistant, he added.

Army Got Apples Here

The next canner product to be exploited will be the shelf size can or jar of dessert apples, Knouse added. Now most apples are canned for industries and "most people see our product in the form of apple pie rather than in the can." The York Imperial does not lend itself to being a "nice dessert apple" because of its shape. The Golden however "is well shaped and can produce a one-size grade of apple for use as a dessert."

Ralph E. Arnold, vice president of the Peach Glen plant, told the Rotarians that of "all apples produced in the U. S., one third go to the processing plants." This year, he added, about 120,000,000 bushels will be produced in the U. S.

Of all of the apple products purchased by the Quartermaster Corps for the use of the armed forces during the war about 60 per cent of the products were bought from the Gettysburg office established for the war period.

Handle 13,000 Bushel Daily

Big problem of the canning industry at present is sugar and if the refineries are unable to produce sugar soon the canning industry will be in bad shape, Arnold warned.

The former Knouse corporation produces apples, apple sauce, apple butter, vinegar, apple juice, tomato juice and apple pomace, he added with the two plants, at Peach Glen and Chambersburg scheduled to utilize about 2 1/2 million bushels of apples this year if a 150-day production period can be carried out.

Thirteen thousand bushels of apples are used daily at the Peach Glen plant with 8,000 bushel going into canned apples, 3,000 bushels into apple butter and 2,000 into cider. At Chambersburg, 5,000 bushels are used daily to make applesauce, making a total use of apples per day at the two plants, of 18,000 bushels.

Production daily at the Peach Glen plant averages about 30,000 gallons of canned apples; 50,000 quart jars of apple butter, 15,000 1 1/2 quart cans of tomato juice, 60,000 gallon of cider for vinegar and 20,000 pounds of apple pomace which eventually is used for such things as Certo.

Completing Section Of Harrisburg Road

The state highway department will complete this week the resurfacing of the Harrisburg road between York Springs and the York county line, Joseph D. Kendelhart, local state highway superintendent, announced today.

PARENTS' CLINIC SUGGESTED AS LOCAL PROJECT

The possibility of establishing a "parents-children" clinic to which parents of the community could go to secure expert advice in problems relating to the rearing of their children was suggested as a possible project for the Gettysburg Religious Laymen's association Monday evening at a meeting in the YWCA building.

No action was taken on the proposal with the matter scheduled for discussion and acceptance or rejection at the November session of the group.

The parent has many problems in connection with a child's development, members said, and there is at present no place to which they can turn to secure help in solving their problems.

To Elect in November

A report on the public meeting held October 6 by the Laymen's group at which plans were formulated for establishment of a Gettysburg Improvement Association was presented by G. H. Roth. Roth told the group that a letter had been prepared by the acting chairman of the Improvement association, Mrs. Wilbur Plank, and will be sent this week to all organizations of the community asking them to delegate representatives to attend an organization meeting of the proposed improvement association to be held November 7.

Herbert G. Hamme and George Naugle were appointed to represent the Laymen's association at the Improvement group meeting.

A report of the nominating committee headed by George Naugle listed Dr. Thomas L. Cline for reelection as president; T. E. Farrell for vice president; Mares Sherman, treasurer, and T. U. Geiman, secretary.

The election of the officers will take place at the November meeting of the association.

He was a lifelong member of the Marsh Creek Church of the Brethren. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Myrtle (Kemper) Shover; three children: William W. Shover, 200 West Middle street, and James L. and E. Lawrence Shover, both of Harrisburg, and two grandchildren.

POLICE FILE CHARGE

A charge of reckless driving has been placed before Justice of the Peace William Dentler against Miss Mildred Eden, Mt. Newman, as a result of an accident Friday evening, State Police said today. A ten-day notice was sent Miss Eden.

C. A. BIXLER IS HURT IN AUTO CRASH TODAY

C. A. Bixler, Lincolnway west, New Oxford, district manager of the United Telephone company, and Mrs. Katherine Schlossberg, Chicago, were injured this morning when cars driven by Bixler and Mrs. Schlossberg's husband collided at 8:15 o'clock four miles east of here on the Lincoln highway.

Bixler was treated by Dr. C. G. Crist, Chambersburg street, for shock and bruises about the head while Mrs. Schlossberg was being x-rayed today at the Warner hospital to determine the extent of injuries to her ribs and right forehead.

According to State Policeman James A. Treas, who investigated, Bixler was driving west on the Lincoln highway following a truck driven by R. D. Peters, Bendersville. Peters and Bixler both turned slightly toward the center of the highway to pass a car which was parked along the side of the road.

$1,300 Damage

Treas said that Bixler apparently started to go around the truck believing the truck would turn back to the right and then, discovering that the truck was making a left turn into the Lincoln Loos, cut back sharply to the right off the road.

To avoid hitting guard railings and poles along the side of the road Bixler swung back sharply to the highway. Treas said his investigation disclosed. When he cut back to the highway, Bixler swerved too sharply and crossed the three-lane road on an angle, striking the right front of a car driven by Harry Schlossberg, 63, Chicago, husband of the woman who was injured. Schlossberg was driving east at the time of the accident.

Damage to Schlossberg's 1946 Packard which had been driven only 800 miles was estimated by police at $800. Damage to the United Telephone company car driven by Bixler was put at $500. Both cars were towed to Gettysburg garages.

Bixler traveled 180 feet off the north side of the road before returning to the edge of the highway and went 45 feet further before striking the Schlossberg car, Treas said. The state policeman is continuing his investigation.

PROSPECT OF WORLD PEACE IS NOT BRIGHT

By LEWITT MACKENZIE (AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The Paris "peace" conference has terminated its labors in a spirit of acrimony and dissension that emphasizes the split between the Russian dominated Slavic bloc and the Western Allies, and threatens to nullify much of the labor which has been expended since the parley opened July 29.

The conference results (one scarcely can employ the more optimistic term "achievements") now will be placed before the Big Four Foreign Ministers' council—America, Britain, Russia and France—in New York for approval or rejection. Decisions of the council must be unanimous, and a fiery outburst by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov the closing session of the Paris conference indicated that he would employ the veto against several important actions of that body.

So the dove of peace would seem to have been sitting on an added egg in the old Luxembourg palace. And lucky she didn't get shot, as well.

Red Attack Spreads

Molotov tossed the monkey-wrench into the machinery with great deliberation. He declared that the results of the conference were unsatisfactory. He accused the United States, Britain and France of violating their agreements (made in the Foreign Ministers' council) in adopting a number of "anti-democratic" measures regarding Trieste.

And the Soviet Foreign Secretary angrily charged that the United States had dominated the conference. Was it by coincidence that almost simultaneously the Moscow press ACD radio took vigorous punches at Uncle Sam? Well, anyway, yesterday the Soviet newspaper Pravda, commenting on strikes in the United States, declared that American capital had launched a campaign against workers as part of a program to conquer the world by imperialism. Sunday the Moscow radio stated that Premier Stalin was referring "to such a country as the United States" when he made his recent declaration that talk of a new war was promoted by some military men to prevent reduction of military budgets in their countries.

Gloomy Outlook

Molotov, in accusing the United States of dominating a group of lesser powers to achieve its own ends, declared that "in all votes in the conference it was enough for the American delegate to vote and another 12 or 13 votes were assured." He said the Americans sought "definite decision regardless of whether they were correct as long as they pleased this group."

That is the unhappy situation as the Big Four transfer their activities to New York. This final outburst in Paris was no mere flash in the pan. It marked an accumulation of distrust and suspicion which has been driving the eastern and the western allies further apart. If this atmosphere prevails when the Big Four Foreign Ministers assemble in New York, the prospect of international accord will indeed be gloomy.

T. J. LITTLE, 81, DIES ON MONDAY

Tempeth Jacob Little, 81, a former director of the McSherrystown Farmers bank, died Monday morning at 12:30 o'clock at the Barley Rest Home, York R. 7, where he had been a patient for the past five months.

A lineal descendant of the founder of Littlestown, Peter Glen (Little), who came to America from Germany in 1737, the deceased was born in West Manheim township, York county, November 3, 1865, the ninth child of the late William Brown and Margaret Nace Little.

He was in the retail grocery business at Hanover and later formed a partnership with the late N. B. Carver, dealer in dry goods and clothing. For a time he worked as a bank clerk and later was clerk of the York county courts and also served as court clerk of York county courts. He was associated with the Hanover Agriculture Society, the Hanover Moose and Eagles, as well as with a number of other organizations in that community.

Twice married, he is survived by the following children, Miss Helen H. Little and Mrs. James J. Rudisill, Lancaster; Mrs. J. H. Hanshalter, Pittsburgh; six grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

Funeral Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the W. A. Feiler funeral home, Hanover, with the Rev. John S. Tonne officiating. Interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening.

Waynesboro Scores Twice In Last Four Minutes To Down Maroon Eleven 18-6

A pair of touchdowns in the last four minutes of play gave Waynesboro high an 18-6 victory over the Gettysburg high Maroons in a South Penn conference football game played here Monday evening before a crowd of approximately 2,500 fans.

There was little to choose between the teams during the first half as the Tornado dominated play throughout the second half and an aerial attack, plus an interception of a Maroon pass in the last minute of play, produced the winning scores for the visitors after the teams had gone off the field at intermission deadlocked at 6-all.

Coach Burger's outfit took advantage of a poor kick-off in the first period to register its first touchdown.

Poor Punt Costly

After an exchange of punts following the opening kick-off, Joe Hess attempted a quick kick from his own 27 but the boot carried only to the Maroons' 34. On the first play R. A. Geesaman, speedy Tornado halfback, got around left end for 25 yards and a first down on the 9. A five-yard off-side penalty put the Forney-men back on their four. R. J. Geesaman picked up two yards at center and Quack Geesaman was stopped on another line play. On the next attempt Jay Geesaman smashed through center for the score. Quack Geesaman attempted to go over left guard for the extra point but was stopped cold.

The Maroons got their first scoring opportunity early in the second quarter but were held for downs with but one yard to go to hit pay dirt.

Waynesboro was in possession of the ball on its own 25 when two successive plays lost five yards. Quack Geesaman was set to punt on the next play but Carson's pass from center soared over his head and went to the 1-yard stripe where Sheffer, an alert and efficient performer all evening, pounced on the piskin for the Maroons.

Tornado Line Holds

The Waynesboro line put up one of the finest goal lines stands seen here in a long time at that stage of the game. Sharrah hit the line twice and Joe Hess two more times but when the players unraveled following the last play the ball was still a foot from the goal line.

However, the bad pass served to set the stage for the Maroons' lone tally of the evening. Geesaman immediately punted out to his own 35. After Rodgers lost a yard on an off-tackle play, Hess fired a pass to Bruce Westerdaahl for a first down on the 24. Hess picked up two yards at right tackle and then fired a pass down the middle to Westerdaahl on the 15 and he raced unmolested across for the score. Another pass for the extra point fell short.

Waynesboro threatened midway in the third period. Pryor recovered a fumble by Hess on the Gettysburg 43. A pass, Jay Geesaman to cousin Quack, was good for a first down on the 10. Mitchell and the Geesaman boys reeled off another first down on the eight. Here the Maroons proved their mettle to take the ball on the 1-yard line on downs. A pass was grounded. Quack Geesaman was stopped at the line and then Jay Geesaman got five yards at right end. An off-tackle lunge by Quack Geesaman fell one-yard short of pay dirt.

Hess punted out to his 34 and the Tornado was threatening again when Geesaman whipped a pass to Mitchell for a first down on the 11. The Maroon line broke through to throw two Waynesboro runners for a loss of 11 yards on two plays and then Shull recovered a fumble on the 40.

Passes Click

Waynesboro marched 49 yards for its second touchdown which came with less than five minutes of play remaining. Successive passes, Jay Geesaman to Quack Geesaman and Mowen were good for two first downs to reach the 29. Two line plays netted four yards and then Geesaman dropped a pass into the arms of Mowen who took two steps to tally. Jay Geesaman's placement for the extra point was wide.

Upon receiving the kickoff the Maroons opened with a passing attack and got a break when Waynesboro drew a 15-yard penalty for pushing which gave the Forney-men a first down on Waynesboro's 39. However, two plays later Mitchell snared one of Hess' passes on his 35 and behind nice interference raced up midfield 49 yards to reach the Gettysburg 6 where Hess finally pulled him down. Waynesboro was set back 5 yards for too much time in the huddle. Mitchell picked up a yard at center and Pryor added seven yards at right guard. On the next play Quack Geesaman went through the line for a tally. Jay Geesaman's try for the point failed.

Lines Play Well

Waynesboro rolled up eight first downs while the Maroons gained five, one of which was on a penalty. Despite defeat, the Maroon line generally put up a good game, time and again breaking through to clear the Waynesboro backs for losses. Waynesboro's line was also valiant throughout and most of the ground gaining was confined to the air where the Tornado dominated.

On Friday afternoon the Maroons journey to Shippensburg for another conference game with the Greyhounds.

EXPECT SURGE OF BOSTON HITS IN FINAL GAME

St. Louis, Oct. 15 (AP)—The world championship and $127,739 in cold cash awaits the winner today as Dave (Boo) Ferriss, the amazing Boston Red Sox sophomore, opposes pint-sized Murray Dickson of the St. Louis Cardinals in the finale of the 43rd World Series.

National league prestige, rocked to its foundations by the all-Star game rout, has made a remarkable recovery in the Red Birds' split of the first six games but the power-laden Boston remains the oddsmakers favorite at a 13 to 20 price.

Another capacity crowd of 35,000 is expected to pack Sportsman's park.

Ferriss' 4-0 shutout victory in the third game and his 25-6 regular season win record give the Sox an edge over Dickson, a renovated bullpen artist who piled up most of his 15 decisions since his first starting chance June 7.

On top of Ferriss' past performance chart that includes a series win over Dickson, there is a solid suspicion that the Sox, who never have lost a series, are due to break out at least once with a spurge of extra base blows.

Look To Williams
Not even the stoutest members of the "Knock Ted Williams Society" would have figured he'd be going into a seventh game with only five hits, all singles. Williams has been stymied by the variations of the "Dyer shift" and heady pitching by the Cards who have given him very little to hit at. Most of his teammates join "the kid" in thinking he is due to tee off on the right-handed Dickson.

In the first six games, the box score figures show the Cards have completely outplayed the vaunted Sox who breezed to their pennant. St. Louis enjoys an edge in club batting .254 to .242, club fielding .987 to .957, only three errors to 10 and in both total hits and runs.

Seven Card pitchers have given fewer earned runs and pitched more complete games than the 10 Sox hurlers used by Manager Joe Cronin. Only in the game Ferriss worked did the Red Sox show a marked superiority. All season long the 24-year-old righthander from Shaw, Miss., has been noted for pitching just hard enough to win whether it was 1-0 or 10-9. He has been what Cronin happily describes as a "winning pitcher." Detractors have pointed out that he does not have a real blazing fast ball but his 21 freshman victories and 25 wins this season provide a mouth-shutting rebuttal.

Precedent says the Sox never lose a series and the same tradition also reveals that the Cardinals never fail in a seven-game "classic."

Although the players' shares will be the smallest since 1918 because the $175,000 radio money is being placed in escrow for the pension fund, the winning pot amounts to $127,739 as compared to $85,160 for the loser. If St. Louis wins each share will amount to approximately $3,736.45 but a Boston win would net each man only $3,098.52 because they split it 41½ ways to 34 for the Birds.

Not since 1925 when Pittsburgh beat Walter Johnson of Washington in the rain and mud at Forbes field has a series lasted as long as October 15. Once it dragged out as long as October 26 after a week of rain at Philadelphia in 1911.

BEARS, 'SKINS HOLD LEAD IN PRO FOOTBALL

By RALPH RODEN

New York, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Chicago Bears and Washington Redskins were doing business at their old familiar stands today—atop the two divisions of the National football league.

It was quick return to well-known surroundings for the Skins, who topped the Eastern division last season, but the Bears, who went into a tailspin during the war years, were in command in the west after a somewhat lengthy absence.

With the New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles meeting their first defeats, the Bears and Redskins emerged from yesterday's games as the only undefeated teams in the circuit, and even they have been tied.

Sid Luckman, kept the Bears atop the heap Sunday by hurling three touchdown passes and spearheading a last period rally that enabled the Bears to deadlock the Champion Los Angeles Rams 28-28 before 44,211 fans at Chicago.

Baugh Is Sparkplug
Sammy Baugh sparked the Redskins to a 24-14 win over the New York Giants at the nation's capital. Baugh tossed a 50-yard scoring pass to Steve Bagarius in the third period and with the score tied at 13-13 in the last session, Baugh pitched a 13-yard pass to Bagarius in the end zone to break the deadlock. Dick Poillon brook a 35-yard field goal with less than two minutes to go to clinch the victory. The Giant touchdowns were scored by Bill Paschal and Steve Pilipowicz.

At Philadelphia, the Eagles dropped into the once beaten class along with the Giants, Rams and the Pittsburgh Steelers by bowing to the Green Bay Packers 19-7.

The Packers were paced by veteran Ted Fritsch who scored twice, kicked a field goal and two extra points.

Van Buren Injured
Steve Van Buren, who was taken from the field twice because of injuries, tallied the Long Eagle touchdown in the first period when he sped seven yards to culminate an 89 yard drive.

The Steelers downed Boston 16-7, scoring all their points in the second period. Bill Dudley spearheaded the offensive, setting up one touchdown and kicking a field goal and extra point. Nick Scollard racked up Boston's lone six pointer by recovering Johnny Clements' fumble in the end zone.

Paul Christman threw four touchdowns passes and scored once himself to lead the Chicago Cardinals to a 36-14 triumph over the Lions at Detroit.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys
If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 16 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matters stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give "happy relief" and will help the 16 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

No matter how today's game comes out, it's been a bad time for the bookmakers. The series odds on the Red Sox were so prohibitive at the start that many fans turned to the Cardinals just to get a run for their money. The game today is the equal of the entire series—although the odds are not as sharp.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Mr. Shevnan says: The Zoetie Shield is a tremendous improvement over all former methods, effecting immediate results. It will not only hold the rupture perfectly no matter the size or location, strengthen the weakened parts, and thereby close the opening in ten days on the average case, regardless of heavy lifting, straining or any position the body may assume. A nationally known scientific method. No under straps or cumbersome arrangement and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments.

Mr. Shevnan will be glad to demonstrate without charge.

Today's Talk
SOMETIMES WE ARE WRONG!
None of us is very patient with the one who contends that he is always right. None of us is always either right or wrong. But we have the right to think one way or the other. Sometimes we are wrong!

The careful listener is to be emulated. He is usually the one who thinks about all sides of a problem, making up his own mind as to what he considers right or wrong. All opinions, by others, should be respected. That is the safest way to learn the truth about anything, thus saving much bitter controversy.

One way to know that we know, is to be sure of all our facts. Prejudice works havoc in this world, and leads to bigotry and intolerance. Everyone of us should cultivate the distinction of an open mind, into which may flow, uninterrupted, unvarnished truth. There is a world of meaning in that statement that "the truth shall make you free."

Take this epidemic of strikes that are bogging up production and a happy march forward. If all the facts in every controversy were honestly presented, and submitted to arbitration, dismissing all prejudice—looking each wrong and right in the face—it wouldn't be long before most of the strikes would be settled in friendly fashion. There is a wrong and right side to each. The middle ground is important.

It takes a magnanimous person to admit he is wrong—at the right time. That clears the atmosphere of a discussion at once. It is our privilege—and a happy one—to change our mind, at will, when once convinced, and to acknowledge the fact. Even though we have to say a farewell to consistency, which Emerson once said was the "hobgoblin of little minds."

However, when we are convinced we are right, we should stick to it, no matter what. That is an evidence of character. It's an evidence of pig-headedness when we don't. We have an example of both sides, at the present time, in the discussions that are going on in the UN meetings, and at the Peace conference in Paris. In these instances the fate of the world rests upon the decisions made.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Creative Silence."

WALLACE AIMS
AT "LIBERALS"
FROM NEW JOB

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, Oct. 15 (AP)—Henry Wallace—announcing his new job as editor-in-chief of the New Republic magazine—says it will address the liberal-minded people of the world.

He says: "I want it to be looked on as 'must' reading by liberals all over the world. I want it to be so simple that high school students can understand it and so sound that Doctors of Philosophy respect it."

It might be well, in making the magazine more readable, if Wallace would lay down his definition of the term liberal.

This is one of the most abused words in the language and has become through careless usage, a name for many different kinds of political and economic thinking. Any two people might not agree on its meaning.

Wallace says he wants the magazine read by workers, farmers and small businessmen all over the United States.

Circulation Small
This is a far-reaching program for a magazine like the New Republic which has a circulation now of only 40,000 to 45,000.

Before examining that program, here is some background.

The New Republic is published weekly, runs 30 to 35 pages, sells for 15 cents. About 9,000 copies are sold weekly in New York. The rest are distributed around the country.

The magazine is made up of book reviews, a story on Washington events, movie reviews, and various pieces of interpretation and opinion on politics, world affairs, economics and almost any other field.

The magazine was founded in 1914 by Willard Straight, Wall Street banker and partner in the firm of J. P. Morgan and Company. Straight's son, Michael, is now on the staff.

Throughout its history the magazine has backed what it called progressive legislation. It was for Franklin D. Roosevelt and his new deal program throughout his stay in the White House. It has been anti-Republican party.

Every two years, before the congressional elections, it prints a special section on the voting records of congressmen, pointing out what it considers good voting, and good congressmen, urging their re-election.

Over Their Heads
College professors, economists, labor experts and experts in many fields have written for the New Republic and still do.

In order to reach the wider audience of readers, outlined by Wallace, the magazine will enlarge its staff. But to reach that audience the magazine will have to be more readable.

The New Republic is respected by intellectuals but it always has been written over the heads of the great majority of people in this country. It is written for the upper-level of intelligence.

This magazine, and others like it, preach racial equality, social and economic justice and the need for congressmen to vote for laws to carry out those programs.

But the very people of whom these magazines talk—the millions of poor whites and negroes and other millions of voters whose votes might be influenced—never see the magazine and wouldn't understand most of it if they did.

FRENCH OKAY
CONSTITUTION;
VOTING LIGHT

Paris, Oct. 15 (AP)—A constitution for France's fourth republic, providing for a powerful legislature overshadowing the president, bore the stamp of public approval today, given in the face of Gen. Charles De Gaulle's opposition.

The people of continental France accepted the new constitution Sunday by a margin of some 1,212,000 votes—and a percentage of 53.6 in favor to 46.4 opposed. Voting was light, with 31.9 percent of the registered voters staying away from the polls.

Gen. De Gaulle, wartime leader of the fighting French, had contended that the charter was inadequate because under it the executive would be too weak. He warned that the constitution would endanger France's future and urged its rejection.

Effective in December
But the result of the referendum, far from being regarded as a defeat for the general, was taken rather as strong testimony to his continuing prestige. Almost single handedly he nearly defeated the constitution despite the fact that it was backed by France's three major parties.

Official interior ministry returns for continental France showed 9,062,467 votes for the constitution to 7,790,676 against it.

The constitution will not take effect until early December, when parliament is scheduled to be seated.

One chamber, the National Assembly of Deputies, will be elected November 10. The second, the Council of the Republic, is to be chosen by a complicated electoral college system. The charter will be effective

HARD SCHEDULE
FOR CANDIDATES
IN FINAL WEEKS

Harrisburg, Oct. 15 (AP)—Swinging into the last three weeks of the statewide campaign candidates for both parties were faced with heavy schedules with most of the speech-making being concentrated in the east.

Republican State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor said over the week-end that the CIO is "composed of millions of American workers" who would fight if it was suggested that they had Communist leanings.

He said that the CIO-PAC, however, is "a horse of another color—mostly red," and he described this wing of the CIO as being "definitely Communist-dominated."

On the other hand, U. S. Senator Joseph F. Guffey called upon Governor Martin, his Republican opponent, to have GOP campaign fund-raisers "return every dollar that has been collected from state employees for this campaign."

Guffey referred specifically to the Milk Control Commission, where Chairman H. N. Cobb first wrote to commission employees "suggesting" they contribute to the Republican fund, then sent a second letter stating that contributions "must be voluntary."

"Big Business" Charge
In Philadelphia Sunday Guffey said at a political rally that Martin and Attorney General James H. Duff, Republican candidate for governor, are representatives of large business enterprises. He added that Martin "has been widely known as a Mellon man" and asked those attending "do the people want a Mellon-Gulf oil senator in Washington where his vote may have an important bearing on what will happen to these resources?"

As released by Democratic state headquarters, the itinerary of Democratic candidates will see a series of rallies in Philadelphia tonight and tomorrow attended by Guffey, candidate for election to the Senate; John S. Rice, for governor; State Sen. John Dent, for lieutenant governor and Al Schmid, for secretary of internal affairs.

Clark At Pittsburgh
On Thursday, Guffey and Dent will speak at Weatherly, Palmerton and Lehigh, with Schmid visiting McConnellsburg and Rice at a rally at the Summit hotel near Uniontown. All four will start on the Butler county tour from Coopersburg Saturday.

The Democratic state committee also announced U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark will speak at Pittsburgh Wednesday and Chester Bowles, former OPA head, at the

CHANGE RULES

FOR STRIKE IDLE

Harrisburg, Oct. 15 (AP)—The U. S. Employment Service, which receives unemployment compensation claims in Pennsylvania, drafted new instructions to its local offices recently in line with a ruling ending the temporary disqualification from jobless benefits of all persons idled in strikes.

USES spokesmen said a bulletin has been prepared noting that the state has ruled only those actually participating in an industrial dispute or impliedly connected with the striking union are barred from immediate jobless benefits.

"Any doubtful cases," the spokesman added, "will be referred to the state Bureau of Unemployment Compensation for decision in the usual way."

The State Unemployment Board of Review recently set aside a previous decision disqualifying all persons made idle in an industrial dispute from receiving benefits unless

will be mighty lucky"

Parents are certainly justified in the pride and delight they take in the cooking accomplishments of a young daughter. For they realize how much this achievement will contribute to her future happiness and that of her new family when she marries.

And so—wise parents encourage their daughters to master the arts of cooking, just as they supervise and help to develop other talents. And, naturally, the presence of a modern automatic gas range in the kitchen is a very favorable influence. Its beautiful, smart appearance literally invites use . . . it simplifies cooking and operates so dependably that guesswork is eliminated. The novice quickly gains the confidence necessary to enable her to learn the more advanced cooking techniques.

And, of course, this is the type of range she will most probably have when she "sets up housekeeping"—because where there's a choice of fuels, first choice is always gas.

A Modern Automatic Gas Range
Brings Advantages to Every Home

Every woman who cooks will delight in having a new gas range. For information on new ranges, visit your Gas Company office or Registered Gas Appliance Dealers. Do it now, to assure earliest delivery possible.

Common cows, carrying fat and flesh but aged and "lumpy," $10.50-11.50. Canners and cutters, $8.50-10.50, with shelly canners $7.50-8.00.

Both good beef and sausage bulls, $14.10-15.00. Cattle, common and medium, $10.00-13.50. Country outlet broad for stockers and feeders, consequently trading active and prices steady with the close of last week. In this division approximately 30 loads offered. Chicago is the second largest city in the United States.

There's one sure thing to be said about execution. It certainly stops the criminal involved from further assaults on society. From this standpoint the consensus seems to be that the world will be better off when the Fuehrer's captains join him. And there are few indeed, no matter what their religious beliefs, who don't agree that the Nazi chiefs should be removed from society in some manner—if not by death, then by life imprisonment. They are too terribly dangerous to be free.

Teachers Are Quizzed

Every day from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. they sit around the table. Experts from various fields, including news, papering, come and talk to the editors and then are open to questions.

The experts are some of the Newsmen who are labor experts, labor leaders, George Gallup, the public opinion specialist; men who have ideas about making news papers more readable.

The editors not only quiz the experts and pick up ideas from them but question each other, sometimes bluntly, because some of the editors are critical about the way some other editors' papers are run.

After three weeks this group goes home. In batches of 25, they'll be followed by city editors, picture editors, and general news reporters. Each group will have sessions which last three or four weeks.
